 The general alarm will be sounded by ringing ten rapid strokes of the bell, followed by the number of the district in which the fire is located, which will be rung three times. When the distinct alarm is represented by more than one bell, as No. 24, after giving the general alarm the bell will be tapped twice, then a slight pause, followed by four taps with a longer pause, and then repeated twice more before sounding the general alarm again.

BRIEF MENTION

Everything guaranteed at Winters.

R. E. Outbridge, of the McIntire Company, is in from Pokagama on company business.

E. B. Hall can sell you a fine ranch in the Klamath basin at reasonable figures and on easy terms. Office, 2nd floor, Baldwin block.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Melhase were at Dorris yesterday, arranging for their removal to that place on the first of May.

An extra large shipment of Knickerbocker suits and extra pants for boys, at the Boston Store.

The Mong Company got home from Dorris last night where they played two nights. They had very good houses and completely satisfied the people of that place.

Five acres 2 1/2 miles from Klamath Falls: good garden location. Will furnish fencing material to the party who will fence and clear the place for the use of the ground for the present season.
 Address, P. O. Box 41.

Willie Virgil was at Dorris yesterday.
 He took Mr. and Mrs. Worden to that place in their automobile. Donald Worden also went to the new railroad town in the machine.

Spring line Panama and Straw Hats at the K K K store.

One carload each of salt, sugar, nails, and beer, and two carloads of general merchandise arrived at Pokagama last week. These are probably the last large shipments of freight that will come via Pokagama.

For the best rig in town call at the Mammoth Stables. H. W. Straw, Proprietor.

Odd Fellows, Take Notice

A banquet will be given at the A. O.
 U. W. hall on Saturday night, the 25th of April, in celebration of the eighty-ninth anniversary of our order. All Odd Fellows and their wives, Rebekahs and their husbands are cordially invited.

By order of Klamath Lodge, No. 137,
 I. O. O. F.

O. A. STRAIN, Secretary.

To the Electors of Klamath County

GENTLEMEN:—Having received the nomination of the Republican party for the office of sheriff, I wish to express to you my appreciation of your efforts in my behalf. I feel the more grateful, knowing as I do, that it was the people without any political combination, who have so honored me. I extend to each of you personally my thanks for your efforts and confidence in me.

Respectfully Yours,

W. B. BARNES.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, GENERAL LAND OFFICE, Washington, D. C. March 27, 1906. NOTICE OF RESTORATION OF PUBLIC LANDS TO SETTLEMENT AND ENTRY.—Notice is hereby given that the acting Secretary of the Interior has vacated departmental order of withdrawal in so far as the same affects the withdrawal for irrigation purposes under the act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat., 385) for use in connection with the Klamath Project, Oregon, of the following described lands in the State of Oregon, and by his authority such of said tracts as have not been heretofore finally restored and are not otherwise withdrawn, reserved or appropriated, will be subject to settlement under the public land laws of the United States on and after June 30, 1906, but shall not be subject to entry, filing, or selection until July 30, 1906, at the United States land office at Lakeview, Oregon, warning being expressly given that no person will be permitted to gain or exercise any right whatever under any settlement or occupation begun after February 12, 1906 and prior to June 30, 1906, which settlement or occupation being forbidden:

BIG COMPANY SELLS

One of Lake County's Largest Ranches is Involved

One of the largest deals that ever took place in this county was consummated yesterday, when the Heryford Land & Cattle Co., known locally as the 70 Co., purchased the entire holdings in this and Modoc Co., Cal., of the Cox & Clark Cattle Co., well known here as the X1 Co. F. M. Green, superintendent of the company is in Sacramento, where the deal was finally closed and a telegraph message was received here stating that the deal was closed. The purchase price amounted to the enormous sum of a quarter of a million dollars, for which the purchasers receive in the neighborhood of 6,000 or 7,000 head of cattle, 300 to 400 head of horses and about 20,000 acres of land in Lake county, Oregon, and Modoc county, California. Everything formerly owned by the X1 firm, is now the property of the 70 firm, which makes the latter far the largest livestock company in the state of Oregon.—Lakeview Examiner.

Bonanza Bulletin Items

Born—In Bonanza, Oregon., Saturday morning to Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Clifton, a daughter.

George Grizzle and wife of Klamath Falls arrived in the city Wednesday for a short visit. While here Mr. Grizzle placed a tombstone at the head of a grave and an iron fence around another in the cemetery.

While Ed Lawrence was plowing in Fox Valley Monday, his team ran away and throwing Mr. Lawrence in front of the plow the point cut his right leg from his hip to his heel and injured his knee-cap and also the bone in the heel.
 He was brought to Bonanza and is now under the care of Dr. Johnson.

The concert given in the opera house last Wednesday evening by Mrs. Jessie Brock Morgan and Miss Leta Nickerson was one of the best musical entertainments ever given in Bonanza and was not attended as largely as it should have been but the night was cold and stormy.
 It is to be hoped that the ladies will visit the city again in the near future and during better weather and we are sure a large audience will attend.

Manager Houston, of the opera house wishes to state that he had not the least intention or thought of offending anyone by throwing Mr. Stilts' picture on the screen during the performance of Penelope the other evening. It was not for the purpose of discriminating against Mr. Ward, as his picture would have been used, if he had received the largest vote and he had been able to secure his photo. Mr. Houston is making arrangements to secure pictures of local interest to use during the performances in future plays.

The Need For Companionship.
 There is a wise old German saying that "only a god or a brute can dwell in solitude." Men and women need congenial companionship, both for the sake of health and happiness. There is such a thing as mental as well as physical hunger. Women on lonely farms and in small villages grow morbid and mildly insane, and people do not guess that the cause is want of companionship.

Realistic.
 Two painters were boasting about how they could paint.
 "Do you know," said one, "I painted a sixpence on the ground one day, and a beggar nearly broke his fingers trying to pick it up."
 "That's nothing to what I did," said the other. "I painted a leg of mutton on a stone, and it was so real-like that a dog ate half the stone before he found out his mistake."

A Libel.
 Mrs. Greene—They say that when the men go on fishing trips they take a lot of liquor along with them. Mrs.
 Gray—I don't think that is so. I'm sure it is not so when my husband goes a-fishing. I have overhauled his luggage when he got home on purpose to see, and I have never been able to find a drop of liquor in any of the bottles in his bag.—Boston Transcript.

The first barbers of whom there is any record piled their trade in Greece in the fifth century B. C. In Rome the first barbers operated in the third century B. C. In olden times in England the barber and the physician were identical. Thus a king's barber was also his chief medical adviser. In the time of Henry VIII. of England laws were made concerning barbers of which the following is an extract: "No person occupying a shaving house or barbery in London shall use any surgery, letting of blood or other matter except the drawing of teeth."

An Interesting Item

The Klamath Falls Military Band needs a piano. Just a piano won't do, it must be a good one. To stand the rough usage of dance work and as a club-room instrument, and still be musical enough to meet the severe requirements of solo and vocal accompaniment work, it must be strictly high grade in every particular.
 Now we can't afford to pay the retail price of such an instrument, and after corresponding with several leading piano houses on the coast, ten per cent discount was the best I could get. Now I have been in the music business several years, both as a dealer and piano tuner, and I know something about the prices and values of pianos. I know that we can afford the highest grade instrument made if we can only get the benefit of wholesale prices. After considerable correspondence with manufacturers I finally have been fortunate enough to secure the agency for Klamath county for the Baldwin piano, and there isn't a better piano made than the Baldwin.
 It is necessary, however, for me to buy four pianos in order to get the benefit of the wholesale price.

Now here's the point: I'm not going into the piano business, I've something else to do; but if there are four people in Klamath County who want a first grade piano at the price usually asked for a cheap stencil instrument, here is an opportunity you'll never see again in a lifetime. People don't usually sell pianos for fun, and ordinarily you'll pay the agent a profit of two hundred to five hundred dollars. I ask no profit whatever and I shall sell only the four pianos necessary to secure the wholesale price.
 This is strictly a cash proposition manufacturers don't sell at wholesale on installments. Now if you know of anyone in Klamath County who is in a position to appreciate such an opportunity, you will confer a favor on the band by referring them to me.
